

Appointment of Contractholder's Authorized Representative

Trustees of the H. Felde Tool and Machine Co., Inc. Profit Sharing Plan Trust ("Contractholder") hereby delegate to SMALL PARKER AND BLOSSOM inc. ("Authorized Representative"), the authority and responsibility to act on behalf of the Contractholder in performing the following acts under one or more Nationwide Life Insurance Company ("Nationwide®") group annuity contracts ("Contract(s)") issued in connection with a retirement plan ("Plan"):

1. To receive all communications from Nationwide® as they pertain to a Contract, and to forward all communications to Nationwide® from the Contractholder.
2. To receive information relating to Contract fund performance, updated interest guarantees, and all other funding information which is provided by Nationwide®.
3. To receive issued Contracts, Contract amendments, Contract endorsements, and all other correspondence from Nationwide® and to deliver such items to the Contractholder.
4. To receive Contract deposits from the Contractholder, but only in the form of notes made payable to Nationwide®, and to submit such deposits, along with all information required by Nationwide® for the proper and prompt investment of such deposits, to Nationwide®.
5. To access Contract values and Contract fund balances, as frequently as necessary for the benefit of the Contractholder, including, but not limited to, receiving periodic accountings of all transactions under a Contract and delivering such accounting to the Contractholder.

The Authorized Representative may be authorized to access account balances through the Nationwide® voice response system ("INQUIRE"). This election will also authorize Nationwide® to allow participants to access their account balances through INQUIRE. In the event the Authorized Representative and participants are authorized to access account balances through INQUIRE, the Authorized Representative shall provide copies of the brochures and other written materials describing this service to the Contractholders and participants. The authority to access account balances is contingent upon the election below:

5. a. The Authorized Representative and participants are hereby authorized not authorized to elect access account balances through the Nationwide® voice response system ("INQUIRE") in accordance with Section 5.
6. To instruct Nationwide® to exchange amounts within and among Contract(s) and to provide all information required by Nationwide® for the proper and prompt exchange of these amounts.

The Authorized Representative may be authorized to make exchanges and change participants' fund elections of future contributions through the Nationwide® full-service voice response system ("INQUIRE"). This election will also authorize Nationwide® to take direction from participants for exchanges and changes in their fund elections of future contributions through the Nationwide® full-service voice response system ("INQUIRE"). In the event the Authorized Representative and participants are authorized access to the full-service version of INQUIRE, the Authorized Representative shall provide copies of the brochures and other written materials describing this service to the Contractholders and participants. The authority to access this version of INQUIRE is contingent upon the election below:

6. a. The Authorized Representative and participants are hereby authorized not authorized to make exchanges and change participants' fund elections of future contributions through the Nationwide® full-service voice response system ("INQUIRE") in accordance with Section 6.
7. To instruct Nationwide® to purchase annuities or make cash payments to participants pursuant to a Contract and to provide all information required by Nationwide® to make such annuity purchases or cash payments.
8. To notify Nationwide® of expenses incurred by a Plan which are to be paid from the amounts held under a Contract. Such notification will include all information required by Nationwide® to make such a payment.
9. To receive checks from Nationwide® made payable to the Authorized Representative, withdrawn from funds held under any and all Nationwide® group annuity contracts issued to the Contractholder. Such checks will be for the sole purpose of providing payment of plan administration service fees for services rendered by the Authorized Representative to the Plan(s) which are funded by the Contract(s). Nationwide® shall accept the Authorized Representative's direction as to the fees to be withdrawn, in accordance with the authority granted in Section 8 of this form. The authority to accept such payment is contingent upon the election below:
 9. a. The Authorized Representative is hereby authorized not authorized to receive checks from Nationwide® in accordance with Section 9.
10. To request services be performed by Nationwide® for which Nationwide® may reimburse itself from a Contract for the cost of such services.
11. To perform any other act specifically authorized by the Contractholder in writing. Such written authorization must be received and accepted by Nationwide®. Upon acceptance by Nationwide®, such additional written authorization will be attached to and be made part of this Appointment and be subject to all provisions set forth herein.

The Contractholder and Authorized Representative agree to hold Nationwide® harmless for any representations or any actions taken by the Authorized Representative, its employees, its agents, or its appointees, when the Authorized Representative is acting on behalf of the Contractholder in performing delegated tasks related to the operation of the Contract. The Contractholder and Authorized Representative further agree that Nationwide® will reserve the right to communicate directly with the Contractholder without notification to the Authorized Representative whenever Nationwide® deems it necessary.

This Appointment shall be effective from the date of execution until ten (10) days after the Contractholder delivers a notice, in writing, to Nationwide® of its cancellation.

We hereby agree with the provisions set forth herein:
